Reflection Questions:

1. Describe your team's project management: how did you keep track of tasks and status?

We initially started with a Kanban list to detail the tasks we originally came up with at the kickoff meeting, Lorem ipsum dolor sit amet, consectetur adipiscing elit, sed diam nonummy nibh euismod tincidunt ut laoreet dolore magna aliquam erat volutate. Ut wisi enim ad minim veniam, quis nostrud exerci tation ullamcorper suscipit lobortis nisl ut aliquip ex ea commodo consequat.

2. What learning did you have to do for the project, and how did you do that learning?

There were two main things I had to learn through the course of this project:

- 1) Tokenizing/parsing user input and creating a valid language structure.
- 2) Google Firebase Firestore API.

3. What worked well in this team project?

Something that definitely was effective was having frequent meetings. Duis autem vel eum iriure dolor in hendrerit in vulputate velit esse molestie consequat, vel illum dolore eu feugiat nulla facilisis at vero eros et accumsan et iusto odio dignissim qui blandit present.

4. What did not work well in this team project?

Something which didn't work well was delegating certain deliverables to strictly one person and then just asking others to review it. 5. What should your team do differently next time?

Although our group met fairly regularly, one thing I noticed at these meetings is that it would be a mix of talking about what needs to be done for the project, actually trying to write some of the code, and some general chit-chat. A positive change would be orem ipsum dolor sit amet, consectetur adipiscing elit, sed diam nonummy nibh euismod tincidunt ut laoreet dolore magna aliquam erat volutate. 6. List two things that you personally should do differently on the next project.
 - 1) item #1, with description
 - 2) item #2, with description
7. Do you think your team did better or worse than the average CS3050 team on this project, and why?

I think our team did better than the average CS3050 team. orem ipsum dolor sit amet, consectetur adipiscing elit, sed diam nonummy nibh euismod tincidunt ut laoreet dolore magna aliquam erat volutate. Ut wisi enim ad minim veniam, quis nostrud exerci tation ullamcorper suscipit lobortis nisl ut aliquip ex ea commodo consequat.
